Financial Update

Recap from last meeting

Payroll advance provided to IFN Employee of $40,000

➤ What was the criteria for the payroll advance?

- No additional financial burden to IFN.
- Secured by a promissory note and a first mortgage lien – recorded by attorney
- Payback monthly from paycheck withholding within 12 months.
- Payroll advance amount paid directly to the mortgage company for home payoff
- Amount being withheld from his paycheck effective April
- Note: Criteria was established and executed by the four board officers and President and Treasurer.

➤ Areas of improvement

- Board officers and EC have been reminded by all Board members that there is no payroll advance policy in place and protocol would be to present to Board before making a decision.
- Board has reviewed the transaction and has concurred that nothing illegal was done and no one had personal gain and the money is secured with collateral.
- It is best practice to get board approval or have a policy in place if such a request were to arise in the future - Board has initiated a payroll advance policy to be drafted and submitted before September 30, 2018 – no requests will be entertained until said policy is in place.

Board Report

by Sr. Fehmida Khan

Summary

- Contrary to the perception of some members there was no illegal activity that occurred.
- The Intent of the officers was to help an employee without putting IFN at risk.
- There was no illegal action, or cover up involved.

Q. Was this an illegal transaction.

- This was not an illegal transaction. It was very financially secure transaction and was handled by the IFN attorney.
- The $40,000 was taken from the restricted fund for the employee's payroll account.
- It was not taken out of operational money or endowment fund.
- The payroll advance of $40,000 was secured against the property of the beneficiary which is 3 times the value of the payroll advance.
- The transaction was not in violation of IFN by-laws.
- The transaction was recorded in the accounting books, it was just not highlighted in the report published.

Board Report

by Sr. Fehmida Khan

Q. Was there any 501C violation.

- Since none of the members involved in this transaction benefited from this deal there is no 501C violation.
- The beneficiary is an employee who does not control IFN.

Q. Was there violation of Conflict of interest.

- There was no violation of conflict of interest because the officers did not benefit from the transaction.

Q. Is there IFN loan policy?

- No there is no loan policy in place today.
- IFN board will create a policy in regards to loans and payroll advance.
- This transaction was not a loan, it was pay advance against restricted fund for his salary.

Board Report

Q. Did the IFN officers follow established guidelines of consensus and transparency

- It is best practice to make a decision with the information and majority vote of the board.
- The guidelines of obtaining consensus were not met.
- The officers take full responsibility for this omission, this was not deliberate but an oversight.

Conclusion

- The elected members are honorable members of the community. They have made a mistake in not disclosing in a timely fashion to the EC, BOT and the community regarding the transaction.
- We have heard the opinions of the general body. We will remediate this so that such an error does not occur again in the future.

Q&A

Campus Expansion Project

Project scope is now limited to only multi-purpose building for current phase

IFN Strategy 2025

Physical Needs

On potentially new land, IFN has multipurpose facilities for gym, overspill space, and special events.

By 2020

- A gymnasium has been fully planned and construction is underway by 2020. At least 50% of the funds are collected

Recap from last GBM

- Proposed capital project is large.
- One General Body meeting is not sufficient to make a decision.
- We propose to hold at least two town-halls in 2018 before we consider any vote.
