

A Kind Request

Please cooperate and ensure that your child is placed in a safe environment while you offer your Salah in peace.

Volunteers will be checking on unsupervised kids to ensure their safety and they will be guided to the designated programs.

Children under the age of 13 are not allowed to stay overnight without parental supervision.

Parents of children over the age of 13 will be required to sign consent form submitted prior to the stay at the EC office (provided Supervision is available By IFN)

Kids Care at IFN During the holy month of Ramadan

IFN Women Advocacy Committee wishes you in advance a happy and blessed Ramadan. May Allah (SWT) blesses us all.

The committee worked tirelessly over weeks, to offer programs that can foster family friendly environment during the holy month of Ramadan at IFN.

The main goal is to provide an opportunity for the members to pray in peace to reach the highest level of "Khoushoua".

Parents are encouraged to avail the services provided by IFN.

New Rules at IFN dur- ing Taraweeh Prayers

Children over 8 years of age should be under the direct supervision of parents. No kid will be allowed to roam in and around the masjid by themselves during prayer times. Parents are responsible for keeping kids with them during Salah.

Ramadan Kids Club

This program will be offered to kids between 4 and 8 of age. Hands-on activities and crafts will be used to foster the love and appreciation of Ramadan. There will be a one-time 30$ registration fee per family for the whole month.

Babysitting

A structured babysitting program for kids between the ages of 2 and 4 years will be available for a minimal one-time fee of $30 for the entire month.

Banquet Hall

Moms with kids who are not praying (including infants) nor participating in any program can use the Banquet Hall.

Learning Re- source Center (LRC)

Moms with kids who will be praying quietly will be encouraged to use the LRC

Registration information will be shared on IFN website or through EC office.
